Dani started as a summer law clerk at Broening Oberg Woods & Wilson in 2017 and began as an associate in 2018. Dani's practice includes the areas of commercial general liability, professional liability, dram shop, premises liability, automobile liability defense, insurance bad faith, and personal injury defense.

Before becoming a lawyer, Dani graduated from the University of Missouri in 2015, magna cum laude, with a Bachelor's Degree in Journalism and a Minor in Business. She moved to Arizona to attend law school at Arizona State University.

In law school, Dani worked as a research scholar for the Center for Public Health Law & Policy, where she co-authored several publications on various public health related topics. She also served on the board for the Health Law Society and Jurimetrics. She spends most of her free time hanging out with her two dogs.
