Krystal joined Broening Oberg Woods & Wilson in 2024, where she shares her expertise to represent the firm in the areas of insurance defense, commercial liability, bad faith, and government liability. Krystal brings years of legal experience which provides a platform in developing strategies to advance on behalf of her clients.

Krystal, proud Arizona-native, focused her studies in sociology to understand and help her community needs. Her career path began with helping people at the Volunteer Lawyers Program at Southern Arizona Legal Aid, in Tucson, AZ. To continue to advocate for her community, she attended the University of Arizona James E. Rogers College of Law, where she received her Juris Doctor in 2018. Krystal continues her community outreach volunteering with the Arizona Bar Foundation on various educational programs.

During her free time, Krystal enjoys time with her family, hiking, baking, traveling, and supporting her college and local professional sports teams.
